

Abundant Personal Care Service

Job Description: Personal Chef

Per Task Contractor

1. Interested in people, and kind and gentle in assisting clients to meet their dietary planning and preparation needs.
2. Sets up a week's worth of meals easily served to the client throughout the week. Interviews client to determine food preferences and budget for shopping. Integrates therapeutic diet orders into menu planning and food selection.
3. Able to independently transport themselves and required tools to and from client's homes. Able to shop for ingredients independently.
4. Graduate, or student in final term and in good standing, of the Culinary Institute or equivalent training. Special interest and knowledge of therapeutic diets beneficial.
5. Maintains a personal record free of felony charges, especially relating to Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse and theft or vandalism.